TEXAS EXES®

FLYING LONGHORNS

Dear Texas Ex:

Across the length and breadth of Scotland and Norway lies an unsurpassed richness of natural beauty and archaeological heritage left from the age of the Vikings. Explore this fascinating land where the centuries-old Gaelic language is still spoken in the Scottish Highlands and where enigmatic stone monuments and ancient settlements stand in testimony of Viking and Celtic clans amongst the natural beauty of misty isles, wild glens, lochs and moors. Experience Norway's stunning fjords and the remote gems of the North Atlantic on this journey to distant, idyllic islands along splendid coastlines.

Our specially designed itinerary follows the stepping stones of Nordic and Scottish civilizations during the best time of year, when the weather is mild and the days are long—a rare voyage accomplished only aboard a small ship cruising into smaller ports where larger vessels cannot venture. The exclusively chartered, Five-Star LE BORÉAL, which features only 110 deluxe Suites and Staterooms, is ideal for navigating the serene waterways of Scotland and Norway.

Cruise from charming Bergen, where rows of colorful, gabled houses on the historic Bryggen waterfront evoke the city's past as a center of Hanseatic League trade, to dynamic Glasgow. Take one of the world's most scenic train rides along Norway's spectacular mountain landscape aboard the Flåm Railway. Sail into majestic fjords and admire the natural beauty of the Shetland Islands with their remarkable links to the distant past. Learn more about Viking history on the tradition-steeped Orkney Islands from the renowned archaeology expert, Nick Card, noted for his incredible commitment to researching the region. On this exceptional voyage, immerse yourself in the austere splendor of the Scottish Highlands in the hamlets of Glenfinnan and Glencoe, traverse the ancient shipping lanes of the Vikings and enjoy opportunities to visit up to five UNESCO World Heritage sites. This popular travel program sells out quickly, so book now while space and Early Booking Savings are still available!

This outstanding itinerary is brought to you by the Texas Exes Flying Longhorns travel program, which supports the association's mission of promoting and protecting The University of Texas at Austin and uniting its alumni around the world.

The association is a huge proponent of continuing education and there is no better classroom than our world. Experience rich history and culture in the company of your fellow Longhorns! Are you ready for the adventure of a lifetime? We're standing by to answer all of your questions and/or take your reservation. Capacity is limited on this popular program and it may sell out quickly. Contact Shelley Norton to secure your spot at shelley.norton@texasexes.org, 512-840-5628, or 1-800-594-3938. You may fax the included reservation form to her at 512-672-6134.

Special Guest Lecturer

Nick Card is a senior projects manager at Orkney Research Centre for Archaeology and the site director of the excavation at the Ness of Brodgar. He has worked widely throughout Britain since earning an M.A. with honors from Glasgow University and first engaged in archaeological excavation on Orkney as a student. Falling in love with the islands, he permanently moved there over 25 years ago. Since the inscription of the Heart of Neolithic Orkney as a UNESCO World Heritage site, Nick has been heavily involved in research and fieldwork relating to its monuments. He has also managed projects for the Orkney Archaeological Trust and the Orkney Research Centre for Archaeology, and he is an Honorary Research Fellow at the Archaeology Institute in the University of the Highlands and Islands.

Scottish Clans and Norwegian Vikings

During the enigmatic Viking Age, which prevailed almost 300 years between the eighth and 11th centuries, the Men of the North were cast as fierce barbarians who plundered their way across the known world. They came from Norway to settle in Scotland around A.D. 800—in Jarlshof on the Shetland Islands and in the Hebrides, where over 100 villages still are known by their originally settled Norse names, solidifying the enduring historic link between Norway's Vikings and Scotland's clans. Some of Scotland's best-known clans, the Clan Donald and Clan MacLeod, came from Norse ancestry, influencing the distinct dialects still spoken today on the Orkney and Shetland Islands. The nuance and rich history of these two complex and deeply intertwined cultures await your discovery across these remote, verdant and storied lands.

Bergen, Norway

Wednesday, May 22

Arrive in Bergen, founded on a Viking settlement in 1070 and the Norwegian capital during the 12th and 13th centuries.

Embark the Five-Star LE BORÉAL.

Bergen

Thursday, May 23

From the 14th to mid-16th centuries, Bergen was an important part of the Hanseatic League's trading empire. Walk Bergen's Bryggen (the old wharf), a UNESCO World Heritage site, and see its characteristically colorful wooden homes.

Stroll the grounds of Troidhaugen, the summer home of famed Norwegian composer, Edvard Grieg. Visit the reconstructed Fantoft Stavkirke, a traditional 12th-century wooden stave church, noted for its durable post and lintel construction.

Enjoy the afternoon at leisure in Bergen before the Captain's Welcome Reception on board the ship this evening.

Look for black guillemots along the coast of the Orkney Islands.

Flåm Railway/Cruising the Norwegian Fjords

Friday, May 24

This morning, board the Flåm Railway for one of Travel + Leisure magazine's most scenic train rides. This masterpiece of Norwegian engineering—the steepest standard-gauge railway track in Europe, ascending 2835 feet—opened to the public in 1940 and travels 13 dramatic miles through 20 tunnels to Myrdal's mountaintop station. Watch as snowcapped mountains, cascading waterfalls—including the awe-inspiring Kjøfossen—and intriguing hamlets unfold along this alpine branch of the world-renowned Bergen Line.

Norway's fjords and islands offer some of Europe's most picturesque coastal scenery, where sea mist and sunlight enhance the fjords' deep blues and the landscape's lush greens. Cruise the majestic Sognefjord passing traditional farmsteads and villages flanked by soaring mountains.

Lerwick, Shetland Islands, Scotland

Saturday, May 25

Explore the remote Shetland Islands, declared a Global Geopark by UNESCO for their

Known as the "Light of the North," St. Magnus Cathedral in Kirkwall was founded by the Vikings in 1137.

geologically diverse landscapes and seascapes carved by prehistoric ice. Here, nature's colors and textures endlessly shift and clamoring gannets and puffins crowd the dramatic rock cliffs.

Dock in Lerwick, Shetland's capital, and journey to the island's southernmost point, scanning the verdant landscape for Shetland's famous ponies grazing on the grass-covered knolls.

Visit Jarlshof, a pending UNESCO World Heritage site revealing 5000 years of human history, including late Neolithic stone houses, a Bronze Age village, an Iron Age broch and wheelhouse, Norse longhouses, a medieval farmstead and a 16th-century laird's house.

This evening, the director and head archaeologist of the Ness of Brodgar site, Nick Card, will provide his keen insights about this impressive ancient compound that lies outside of Kirkwall. Mr. Card's research and fieldwork are internationally regarded, both in the archaeology field and by the popular press. The Ness of Brodgar excavations were named the Current Archaeology Research Project of the Year in 2011 and were featured in a cover article of National Geographic in 2014.

The ruins at Jarlshof evoke thousands of years of civilization, from the Neolithic to the Middle Ages.

Kirkwall, Orkney Islands

Sunday, May 26

Nearly 1000 years before the pharaohs built Giza's pyramids and over 500 years before Neolithic man raised Stonehenge, ancient inhabitants of this archipelago erected Ness of Brodgar, a mysterious compound rivaling the scale of the Acropolis, demonstrating advanced technological prowess. Walk among the nearby stone monoliths of the Ring of Brodgar, raised more than 4000 years ago to chart the seasons.

The chromatic wooden buildings of Bergen's Bryggen (the old wharf), a UNESCO World Heritage site, harken back to the city's historical role as one of northern Europe's oldest trading ports.

St. Magnus Cathedral

Winding through the austere Scottish Highlands, the 21-arch Glenfinnan Viaduct frames Loch Shiel, where steep slopes reflect into the loch's sparkling freshwater.

See the ceremonial Stones of Stennes en route to the UNESCO World Heritage-designated settlement of Skara Brae. Archaeologists suggest these sites, along with the Ness of Brodgar, were inhabited by an early Orcadian culture known for decorative arts and sophisticated craftsmanship.

Indigenous Shetland ponies are a strong breed with heavy coats and a maximum height of only 44 inches.

Thousands of years later, the Vikings established the port town of Kirkwall on Orkney's main island, leaving behind the towering 12th-century St. Magnus Cathedral, known as the "Light of the North."

Hear the classically haunting sounds of a Scottish bagpiper as you reboard the ship. This evening, a Scottish storyteller weaves traditional tales that have been handed down by word of mouth for generations.

Portree, Isle of Skye/ Kyle of Lochalsh/ Monday, May 27

Arrive in the scenic capital of Portree, situated along the unforgettable coastline of ethereal Isle of Skye. Travel across heather-covered moors and through the starkly beautiful Cullin Mountains en route to Kyle of Lochalsh. Here, visit one of the world's most iconic castles, the 13th-century Eilean Donan Castle, named for a sixth-century Irish saint.

Fort William/Scottish Highlands Tuesday, May 28

The legendary Scottish Highlands and their rugged scenery have inspired countless folktales with their magnetic and mysterious pull.

Begin your day in bucolic Glenfinnan; view the viaduct immortalized by the Harry Potter™ Express in the Harry Potter film series, and see the Glenfinnan Monument, commemorating the Jacobite Highlanders that Bonnie Prince Charlie rallied against King George II in 1745. Depart for a photo-worthy stop on the Caledonian Canal at Neptune's Staircase—the longest staircase lock in Britain. Travel along castle-dotted shores to Glencoe, what is considered Scotland's most scenic glen, partially owned and preserved by the National Trust for Scotland.

Attend the Captain's Farewell Reception this evening.

Glasgow/U.S. Wednesday, May 29

Disembark in Glasgow, where the indelible mark of Viking conquest still permeates the culture, and continue on the Post-Cruise Option or transfer to the airport for your return flight.

Enjoy a phenomenal journey through the fjordlands of Norway aboard the Flåm Railway, first proposed in 1871.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: Gohagan & Company, the sponsoring associations/organizations, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively "Gohagan"), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity or of any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, bites from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a trip participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person Gohagan judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Ship schedules, port calls, hours of arrival and departure, sightseeing events, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change or cancellation. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute motorcoach transportation using hotels, inns or lodges for cruise accommodations if necessary due to weather, water conditions or levels, other events of force majeure, mechanical or other conditions beyond the control of Gohagan. Gohagan is not responsible therefor and is not required to compensate passengers under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel a trip (or an option) for any reason whatsoever; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to it. Gohagan, however, is not required under these circumstances to refund the cost of any purchased travel insurance. Gohagan is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Gohagan is not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Gohagan makes the flight arrangements or cancels the trip. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure.

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport, visas and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and Internet access; accident/sickness, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; gratuities to ship and hotel personnel; optional sightseeing excursions; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport tax(es); airfare and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed in the "Included Features" section of the brochure; transfers and baggage handling to/from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s); meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned in the "Included Features" section.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the fare basis, likely is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Gohagan.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without notice.

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Travelers must be able to embark or disembark motorcoaches alone or with minimal assistance from your traveling companion and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Travelers requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for handling equipment.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received in the offices of Gohagan in writing, accompanied by the required deposit, by September 28, 2018. In the event a "discounted" reservation must be cancelled, no "replacement" reservation can be substituted at the discounted rate. A "replacement" reservation is a new reservation and can be substituted only at the full-fare tariff. Cancellation penalties may apply.
