TEXAS EXES®

— FLYING LONGHORNS —

Dear Texas Ex:

From the ethereal temples, jewel box pagodas and shogun castles of Kyoto to the latticed merchant houses of Hagi's earthen-walled samurai district, Japan's ancient cities and towns hold an enigmatic fusion of religious rituals, spiritual symbolism and Eastern and Western cultural influences. This unique, custom-designed 10-night itinerary provides unparalleled access to the region's vast architectural riches, bountiful landscapes and venerable heritage.

Spend three nights in Japan's spiritual and cultural capital, Kyoto, home to a sublime concentration of UNESCO World Heritage-designated historic monuments, including the celebrated temples of Kiyomizu-dera, Ryoan-ji and Kinkaku-ji and the imposing Nijo Castle.

Cruise for seven nights along the tranquil coast of the Inland Sea and to South Korea on board the exclusively chartered, Five-Star small ship LE SOLÉAL—featuring only 110 ocean-view Suites and Staterooms. Enjoy excursions to seven UNESCO World Heritage sites, including the 17th-century Himeji Castle, Japan's largest surviving feudal complex; Hiroshima's poignant Genbaku Dome Peace Memorial; Miyajima's Itsukushima Shrine; and in Gyeongju, South Korea, the ancient Silla Kingdom Royal Burial Mounds and the glorious Bulguksa Temple, the embodiment of Buddhist utopia on Earth.

This outstanding itinerary is brought to you by the Texas Exes Flying Longhorns travel program, which supports the association's mission of promoting and protecting The University of Texas at Austin and uniting its alumni around the world. While you do not have to be an alumnus of UT to travel with us, we do ask that all Flying Longhorns travelers have an active membership in the Texas Exes. Memberships start at just $60.

The association is a huge proponent of continuing education and there is no better classroom than our world. Experience rich history and culture in the company of your fellow Longhorns! Are you ready for the adventure of a lifetime? We're standing by to answer all of your questions and/or take your reservation. Capacity is limited on this popular program and it may sell out quickly. Contact Shelley Norton to secure your spot at shelley.norton@texasexes.org, (512) 840-5628 or (800) 594-3938. You may fax the included reservation form to her at (512) 672-6134.

TRADITION, CEREMONY AND RITUAL

Tour Itsukushima Shrine, whose haraiden, or Purification Hall, hosts ceremonies and dances.

Japan's unsurpassed natural beauty and fascinating way of life are found nowhere else in the world; here, centuries-old culture and belief systems echo throughout the nation, aglow with tradition, ceremony and ritual. Ukiyo-e, a Japanese art form beloved by Impressionists, captures the "floating" natural world on woodblock prints. A similar ephemeral style reverberates through a palette of garden types, all quintessentially Japanese: karesansui (dry landscape), strolling and tea gardens, which draw on the tenets of both Buddhism and Shinto. In Shinto's animism, all natural forms—rocks, trees, sand, groves and mountains—are imbued with kami (ancestral spirits).

U.S./Osaka, Japan/Kyoto

Tuesday, May 19 and Wednesday, May 20

Depart the U.S. and cross the International Date Line. After arriving in Osaka, transfer to impeccably preserved Kyoto and check into the ideally located, deluxe KYOTO HOTEL OKURA. The remainder of the day is at leisure.

Kyoto

Thursday, May 21

Japan's imperial capital from 794 to 1868, Kyoto remains the nation's spiritual and cultural heart. Grand imperial castles, tranquil Zen gardens and graceful Shinto and Buddhist sites form the highest and purest expression of Japanese culture. Visit the UNESCO World Heritage site of Kinkaku-ji Temple, the vaunted "Golden Pavilion." Its two upper floors are entirely adorned with gold leaf, and their reflection in Mirror Pond, framed by luxuriant gardens, is one of Japan's most enduring images.

Continue to peaceful Ryoan-ji Temple, another UNESCO-designated monument of Kyoto, originally constructed as an aristocrat's villa during the Heian Period (794 to 1185). Ryoan-ji Temple's legendary karesansui forms a mesmerizing expression of the harmony and purity of Zen Buddhism—it is said that only 14 of the 15 rocks contained within the rectangular garden can be seen at once, and only when one reaches peak enlightenment does the final stone reveal itself.

Enjoy the afternoon at leisure and a Welcome Reception this evening.

Kyoto

Friday, May 22

Visit one of Kyoto's most emblematic symbols, the UNESCO World Heritage-designated historic monument of Kiyomizu-dera ("Pure Water Temple"), built without a single nail on a wooded hillside above the Otowa Falls. Founded in 778 by the Hosso sect, the temple is celebrated for its spectacular overhanging veranda, supported by 139 pillars, which provided the stage for sacred dances and is now celebrated for its panoramic views of surrounding Kyoto. Experience the serenity of the temple's monumental hondo (main hall) and visit Otowa Falls, where a sip of the "pure water" is reputed to bestow health, success or beauty.

This afternoon, learn more about shogun history firsthand at the opulent, UNESCO World Heritage-designated Nijo Castle, built for shogun Tokugawa Ieyasu. Constructed in the 17th century with double moats, colossal walls and protective watchtowers, the formidable castle was intended to convey the fortitude of the shogun's new military government based in Edo (present-day Tokyo). The castle is built almost entirely of Japanese cypress and adorned with exquisite transom woodcarvings and shohekiga (room partition murals).

Kyoto/Himeji

Saturday, May 23

Admire Japan's most stunning and best-preserved feudal castle, UNESCO World Heritage-designated Himeji-jo, an exemplary 17th-century defense system centered on a complex of keeps, ramparts, moats and the donjon. A harmonious masterwork of form and function, the castle's traditional wood construction is married with an elegant white plaster facade.

This evening, embark the Five-Star LE SOLÉAL.

Hiroshima/Miyajima

Sunday, May 24

On August 6, 1945, the first atomic bomb used as an act of war left only structural remnants of Hiroshima's Genbaku Dome; today, this dome is the compelling Hiroshima Peace Memorial and a UNESCO World Heritage site. The solemn Hiroshima Peace Memorial Park, its museum chronicling the history of Hiroshima and the poignant Children's Peace Monument all invite visitors to contemplate the ever-modern need for nuclear disarmament amid stark reminders of war.

Go ashore to the enchanting island of Miyajima, "Shrine Island," to tour the vermilion sixth-century Itsukushima Shrine, a UNESCO World Heritage site set against a backdrop of forested hills where docile deer roam free. The shrine's impressive Great Torii Gate—one of the largest in Japan at 54 feet tall—appears to float on water during high tide.

Attend the Captain's Welcome Reception this evening.

Hagi

Monday, May 25

Tour Hagi's 17th-century Toko-ji Temple and see its 500 moss-covered stone lanterns. Walk past dwellings that once housed samurai in the city's old castle town—part of the Sites of Japan's Meiji Industrial Revolution UNESCO World Heritage site—lined with 19th-century earthen walls, and visit the Kikuya House, one of the best-preserved examples of merchant-style architecture from the Edo period (1603 to 1868). Explore the Hagi Uragami Museum, with over 5000 Edo-period ukiyo-e woodblock prints and porcelain pieces.

Walk through the elaborately decorated karamon (Chinese-style gate)—a symbol of authority and might—to enter Nijo Castle, one of 17 historic monuments in ancient Kyoto designated as a UNESCO World Heritage site.

See Kinkaku-ji Temple, nestled in the heart of an extensive strolling garden that has been thoughtfully designed to inspire tranquility and communion with nature.

Sakaiminato for Matsue

Tuesday, May 26

Tour the highly acclaimed Adachi Museum of Art, where 20th-century and modern Japanese art coalesce with six perfectly landscaped gardens, regarded as “living paintings” when viewed through the museum’s vast windows.

See Japan’s tallest feudal structure and one of its original castles, 17th-century Matsue Castle, known as “Black Castle” for its dark roof.

Enjoy onboard lectures this afternoon while cruising.

Ulsan, South Korea, for Gyeongju

Wednesday, May 27

Take in rural Korea’s captivating scenery as you travel from Ulsan to the cradle of the Silla Kingdom (57 B.C. to A.D. 935) in historic Gyeongju. Visit the eighth-century Bulguksa Temple, a material expression of Buddhist utopia on Earth and a UNESCO World Heritage site for its remarkable craftsmanship. Learn about the Silla Kingdom’s history in the Gyeongju National Museum, which houses over 30,000 artifacts. Enjoy a traditional dance performance during a specially arranged Korean lunch. Visit the striking, grass-covered Royal Burial Mounds at Tumuli Park, where, in 1974, the fifth-century, 43-foot-high Cheonmachong (Heavenly Horse Tomb) was excavated, revealing over 10,000 royal treasures.

Moji, Japan, for Shimonoseki

Thursday, May 28

Visit the striking 12th-century Akama Shrine, dedicated to the child emperor Antoku.

Then, stroll through the Karato Fish Market, which specializes in the local delicacy of fugu (pufferfish) and serves sushi bento daily.

Enjoy the Captain’s Farewell Reception on board this evening.

Uno for Kurashiki and Okayama

Friday, May 29

From the port of Uno, enjoy a scenic drive to the Kurashiki Bikan District, where distinctive black-and-white latticed houses remain preserved from the Edo period. Walk through one of the Three Great Gardens of Japan, beautiful Koraku-en in Okayama. This strolling garden is unique for its large, open grassy areas and distinctive, wooden Ryuten, a pavilion with a stream running through it.

Osaka/U.S.

Saturday, May 30

Disembark and continue on the Osaka and Nara Post-Program Option, or transfer to the airport for your return flight to the U.S.

Stroll through the renowned Koraku-en Garden—graced with bamboo groves, pine and cherry trees, a small tea plantation and Edo-period structures—as stately Okayama Castle seamlessly fuses with the verdant skyline.

Iconic Tokyo

Pre-Program Option

Beneath Tokyo's layers of thriving innovation and enthralling pop culture, you will find traditional wooden houses and secluded alleyway shrines—the cultural core of this vibrant capital city.

Begin with a panoramic tour followed by a visit to the Tokyo National Museum, one of the largest art museums in the world with over 110,000 objects and 87 of Japan's treasures. Enjoy a full-day excursion to Hakone, home to iconic Mt. Fuji, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visit vibrant Asakusa, the center of Tokyo's historic shitamachi district, and tour the seventh-century Senso-ji Temple. Travel aboard the high-speed shinkansen (bullet train) to Kyoto. Spend three nights in the Five-Star ANA INTERCONTINENTAL HOTEL TOKYO.

Osaka and Nara

Post-Program Option

In dynamic Osaka, visit the Osaka History Museum to learn more about the city's merchant past and enjoy sprawling aerial views of the city from the Floating Garden Observatory. Spend a day among UNESCO World Heritage-designated monuments in serene Nara, Japan's oldest capital, where gentle sika deer roam Nara Park's rolling landscape. Visit the historically significant "Great Eastern Temple" of Todai-ji, rebuilt in the 12th century, and the Horyu-ji Temple, where a seventh-century, five-storied pagoda—considered one of the world's oldest wooden structures—stands as a proud testament to Japan's history. Experience the ancient tradition of creating gripped sumi, or calligraphy inksticks, at the Kinko-en Workshop.

Accommodations are for two nights in the Five-Star INTERCONTINENTAL HOTEL OSAKA.

Pre- and Post-Program Options are available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

The Horyu-ji complex's Yumedono contains the "hidden Buddha" statue, Guze Kannon.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: Gohagan & Company, the sponsoring associations/organizations, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively "Gohagan"), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity or of any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, bites from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a trip participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person Gohagan judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Ship schedules, port calls, hours of arrival and departure, sightseeing events, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change or cancellation. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute motorcoach transportation using hotels, inns or lodges for cruise accommodations if necessary due to weather, water conditions or levels, other events of force majeure, mechanical or other conditions beyond the control of Gohagan. Gohagan is not responsible therefor and is not required to compensate passengers under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel a trip (or an option) for any reason whatsoever; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to it. Gohagan, however, is not required under these circumstances to refund the cost of any purchased travel insurance. Gohagan is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Gohagan is not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Gohagan makes the flight arrangements or cancels the trip. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure.

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport, visas and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and Internet access unless otherwise specified; accident/sickness, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; gratuities to ship and hotel personnel; optional sightseeing excursions; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport tax(es); airfare and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed in the "Included Features" section of the brochure; transfers and baggage handling to/from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s); meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned in the "Included Features" section.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the fare basis, likely is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Gohagan.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without notice.

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Travelers must be able to embark or disembark motorcoaches alone or with minimal assistance from your traveling companion and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Travelers requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for handling equipment.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received in the offices of Gohagan in writing, accompanied by the required deposit, by October 18, 2019. In the event a "discounted" reservation must be cancelled, no "replacement" reservation can be substituted at the discounted rate. A "replacement" reservation is a new reservation and can be substituted only at the full-fare tariff. Cancellation penalties may apply.
