Discovery

AHI Connects: Meet the People. At the El-Nafeza Foundation, a cooperative workshop employing impoverished people, see beautiful paper being made by hand.

Abu Simbel. Fly to this top-rated site to see the colossal Great Temple of Ramses II and the well-preserved Temple of Hathor.

Grand Egyptian Museum. Tour this new museum that houses precious relics spanning 7,000 years of ancient Egyptian history. King Tutankhamen's burial treasures, an incomparable trove of 5,000 objects, are displayed together for the first time since his tomb was discovered in 1922.

Sakkara. In this ancient necropolis, visit the Mastaba of Mereruka, the Pyramid Tomb of King Teti and the Step Pyramid of Djoser, considered the first pyramid.

The Pyramids of Giza. View the Great Pyramid, built out of roughly 2.3 million massive blocks of stone. Stand before the mystifying, iconic Sphinx and see a cedar vessel thought to be over 4,500 years old.

Islamic and Coptic Cairo. Discover Cairo's religious heritage at the Mosque of Mohammed Ali, Al-Rifai Mosque, the Hanging Church, Church of St. Sergius and Ben Ezra Synagogue. Explore the colorful and exhilarating Khan el Khalili bazaar.

Luxor Museum. View splendid artifacts that embody the glory of ancient Thebes.

The Temple of Luxor. Cruise the Nile on a traditional felucca to this expansive complex built over several centuries.

The Valleys of the Kings and Queens. Step inside several tombs, including that of the legendary King Tutankhamen. Explore the striking, terraced Temple of Hatshepsut. Watch artisans at an alabaster workshop.

Oriental Institute's Chicago House. Enjoy special access and learn about the Institute's ongoing work of documentation, conservation and restoration.

The Temple of Karnak. Visit the burial place of the 18th-dynasty Egyptian royal family, which features a great hall of 134 gigantic sandstone columns.

The Temple of Horus at Edfu. Admire reliefs that offer valuable details about ancient religious rituals and political life.

Temple of Sobek and Haroeris. Gaze at this unusual, double temple complex dedicated to the gods of the sky and fertility.

The Temple of Philae and the Aswan High Dam. Sail by felucca to Philae, the island temple complex. Visit the Papyrus Institute and see the High Dam, built in the 1960s to control the Nile's annual flooding.

Enrichment

We've meticulously selected the most gifted and professional Egyptologists. Warm and genuine, they're ready to share their passion for their country with you and answer your questions. At every stop, this expert will open your eyes to the depth and breadth of the country's history and make Egypt come to life for you.

UNESCO World Heritage

1. Ancient Thebes with its Necropolis (Temples at Karnak and Luxor; the Valley of the Kings and the Valley of the Queens)
2. Historic Cairo
3. Memphis and its Necropolis — the Pyramid Fields from Giza to Dahshur
4. Nubian Monuments from Abu Simbel to Philae

Sphinx

Electives

We've designed an engaging extension to take you further afield.

Jordan. Journey to Jordan for an enthralling adventure! Stay for three nights in Amman at a first-class hotel, and discover this richly historic region during guided tours of Petra, Jerash, Madaba and Mount Nebo.

Electives are available at an additional cost.

AHI Sustainability Promise

We strive to make a positive, purposeful impact in the communities we visit, whenever possible.

Environmental Impact | Thoughtful choices to minimize our environmental footprint: eco-friendly transportation, guided walks in lieu of bus tours and less plastic waste.

Social Impact | Ongoing initiatives to support local businesses that employ and benefit people in the community. Curating meaningful experiences by staying in intimately sized locales instead of cities affected by overtourism.

Economic Impact | Community-based tourism using expert local guides and lecturers, plus program scheduling during quieter, "shoulder seasons."

AHI Travel Expertise

Passenger Service Representative | Helps with everything from arranging flights to fulfilling special requests.

Travel Director | Manages all details to ensure a memorable trip.

Licensed Egyptologist | Offers a wealth of knowledge to create an incredibly enriching experience.

Travel information | Prepares you fully for your journey.
